- 6:30 EARLIE MUSICKE - Randy McCarty
10:00 EARTH MUSIC - Clare Conrad
11:55 PROGRAM NOTES
12:00 "THE SIA IS NOT DEAD" This program documents the expression of support for the Symbionese Liberation Army following the battle with police in Los Angeles, on May 17, 1974. It contains interviews at Compton, the scene of the battle, actualities from General Field Marshall Cinque's funeral, and excerpts from SIA tapes. Produced by Laurie Simms and Camomile.
1:00 SPONTANEOUS RADEO - Clare Conrad
3:00 RICHARD NIXON VS. UNITED STATES, UNITED STATES VS. RICHARD NIXON Praising the Lord and passing the methedrine, the folks at KPFF got into Nixonian masks and acted out court(ly) dramas of the legendary James, St. Clair and heroic statements of Leon Jaworski facing the razor's edge of tax investigation, and removal for suffering the slings and arrows of an outrageous whitehouse, and taking arms against a sea of Supreme Court Justices, part one of part two of the arguments held before the Supreme Court done dramatically by KPFF.....
4:00 IN SEARCH OF T. E. LAWRENCE Film makers Sam Spiegel, Robert Bolt, David Lean and Peter O'Toole talk about the ways they worked to produce the film, Lawrence of Arabia, and the two year study each made of the life, personality, motives, and history of this remarkable man.

Friday 2

- 6:30 EARLIE MUSICKE - Randy McCarty
10:00 EARTH MUSIC - Jim Paradis
11:55 PROGRAM NOTES
12:00 SPECTRUM Carlos Hagen
1:00 PRAETORIUS - Dances from the publication "Terpsichore." Performed by the Collegium Terpsichore.
1:30 THIRTEEN CLOCKS: PART ONE OF THE THURBER FANTASY - A lyrical, comical fantasy by James Thurber, in four parts. This is the story of the mean duke who is always cold and wears velvet gloves with jewels all the time and thinks up devious ways of being devious. And the story of the rag-tag minstrel who is really a prince in disguise, trying to win the hand of Saralinda, daughter of the duke. Produced by KPFA, with Mike Tigar and David Elster.
2:00 THE DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN JAZZ DRUMMING. In this first of three programs, Bob Gwynne explains the basic concepts of jazz drumming from African beginnings through the age of swing.
3:00 SEATTLE FOLKLORE SOCIETY CONCERT The first concert in a series of past Seattle Folklore Society concerts features Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mountain Boys. In the late forties, Ralph and Carter Stanley gained prominence as a leading bluegrass group. Upon Carter's death in 1966, Ralph formed the Clinch Mountain Boys. He continues to record and tour, just as he and his brother had done, prior to Carter's death. Seattle's own Barney Munger fills in for Ralph's absent bass player. Produced by Darrell Mc Michael
4:30 NATIONAL TOWN MEETING: CRITIQUEING THE MEDIA. Four representatives of the press Pat Buchannon, White House Communications Rep.; Richard Goodwin, former Kennedy speech-writer and presently an editor of Rolling Stone; Richard Harwood, National Affairs Ed. of the Washington Post; and Thomas Asher, Director of the Public Access Project, discuss the control of information in the U.S. and its relationship to power. The program is both enlightening about real issues of the first amendment and entertaining in demonstrating the White House feelings of inadequate coverage of business and the Administration. The program ends with a question period and a little too-lively audience participation.
6:00 FLAMENCO Y SUS ESTILLO - Allen Yonge
6:55 PROGRAM NOTES
7:00 ART IS ALL OVER

- 8:00 AARON COPLAND - Symphony for Organ and Orchestra. Performed by Organist E. Power Biggs and the New York Philharmonic conducted by Leonard Bernstein.
8:30 ROGER BLUCK MEETS THE MINCING DEATH: LIVE RADIO THEATRE "Here, gentlemen, in my hand, I hold what possibly is the world's largest selection of miniaturized pornography taken from the body of the Duchess of Portwithie the very day my cat came into heat. I ask you to analyze this material under the electron microscope. You will note its superficial resemblance to the tobacco mosaic virus." So begins KRAB's own live lunacy, produced and written by Ted Smith.
8:50 SUDDEN INFANT DEATH SYNDROME - Dr. Abraham Bergman, pediatrician, in a speech given October, 1973.
9:30 FRANZ KAFKA - FELICE BAUER Before Kafka had published any of his books, in fact before he had written any but one, he was engaged to Felice Bauer. This engagement was unusual and after five years, it was broken off. The BBC talks with Elias Canetti, author of a book about the engagement and its influence on Kafka's work. The program begins with a reading of Kafka's "The Burrow."
10:00 AN HOUR WITH BUCK "THE NITENGAL" PIANO PLAYER AT THE RED DOG SALON, JUNEO ALASKA. These selections are out takes of recording sessions in Oct, Nov - 1973. Includes: Rufas Rastus Johnson Brown Alwt Nobodys Business, St. James Infirmary, Recorded by Allen Yonge. Buck "The Nitengale" educated to the 5th grade in S. Carolina used to steal canned hams to receive piano lessons with Eubie Blake.
11:00 BUMBLING WITH BALTIC

The Women will Vote this Fall,

As they always do when given an opportunity, that for inviting cleanliness, beauty, and durability, to say nothing of the labor saved in keeping them pure and sweet, the Standard Porcelain-Lined Baths are away ahead of all others. They are all alike inside, and as beautiful outside as you wish, and are guaranteed.

Catalogue free. STANDARD MFG. CO., Box 1454 B, Pittsburgh, Pa.

 11:55 PROGRAM NOTES
 12:00 WOMEN'S SURVIVAL CATALOGUE AND WOMEN'S VIEW ON EDUCATION OPTIONS - In part one Elinor Stout interviews the authors of "The Women's Survival Catalogue," a how to, self help book covering everything from rape to auto repair. In the second part, Janice Adams reports on two women's self help groups, "The Every Woman Center" and "Union of Third World Women."
 1:00 SPONTANEO RAEDE - Leila Gorbman
 3:00 HEARING THE GOVERNMENT: TELEVISION AND VIOLENCE - Last month NPR and KRAB NEWS brought you "Congress and the Media," BUT YOU NEVER THOUGHT THAT THE VAST WASTELAND MADE YOU VIOLENT, WELL, ACCORDING TO THE HOUSE, IT DOES. BUT, ON THE OTHER HAND, IT DOESN'T...??? HEAR THE PEOPLE THAT REPRESENT YOU TELL YOU WHAT YOU SHOULD OR SHOULDN'T SEE...
 3:30 SAPANGI AND TABLA - Short ragas featuring Ram Narayan and Pandit Chatur Lal.
 4:00 CONGRESS AND THE MEDIA (PART THREE) In this weeks episode, the House calls for stage make-up as they decide that T.V. might be good for the government, and good for the people...partly due to the fact that some exposure is better than none at all. Besides, who would decide what people would see, and what they wouldn't.
 4:30 DEUTSCHER DEMOKRATISCHER RUNDFUNK Kammerorchester-Konzert vom 12. Mai 1963 aus dem Apollo-Saal der Deutschen Staatsoper Berlin. "Sinfonie Nr. 45 fis-moll" -Abschiedssinfonie- Komponist: Joseph Haydn
 5:00 THE GOON SHOW - Napoleon's Piano The story starts in the bad old days... it was early one morning - breakfast had just been served in the Manor, and Neddie stood by the window, looking in. He spied the newspaper, wherein appeared an advertisement placed by Moriarty asking someone to move a piano from one room to another. Neddie agreed to do so for 25 pounds, only to discover that the rooms were in two separate continents!
 5:30 PACIFIC THRESHOLD - Burt Webb

Thursday 8

- 6:30 EARLIE MUSICKE - Randy McCarty
 10:00 EARTH MUSIC - Clare Conrad
 11:55 PROGRAM NOTES
 12:00 ASHLEY MONTAGU: "MAKE HUMAN BEINGS OUT OF PEOPLE" Writer-Anthropologist Ashley Montagu, speaks on the processes and goals of human relations, why people are taught an incapacity to think by "modern education," and why the three major species of primates can be thankful human beings didn't descend from them. Recorded in 1968 at the 3rd Annual Festival of the International Cooperation Council.
 1:00 SPONTANEO RAEDE - Clare Conrad
 3:00 RICHARD NIXON VS. UNITED STATES, UNITED STATES VS. RICHARD NIXON PART TWO AND A HALF.... A short time ago, you heard part one of part two, today, the second part of part two.... of the dramatic... the thrilling...the impassioned arguments presented before those pillars of justice, the Supreme Court... James St. Clair and Leon Jaworski become more fun than a low budget "Mothra vs. Godzilla" flick and slug it out over evidentiary matters, dramatically done by people from KPFF....
 3:30 "I'M SORRY, I'LL READ THAT AGAIN." Comedy, real goony stuff, from BBC.
 4:00 JOHANN FRIEDRICH FASCH -
 1) Concerto in D major for trumpet, 2 oboes, strings and continuo.
 2) Sinfonia in G major for strings and continuo. 3) Sinfonia in A major for strings and Continuo. Performed Maurice Andre, trumpet; Pierre Pierlot and Jacques Chambon, oboes; J. - F. Paillard Chamber Orchestra.

- 4:30 CLAM CITY GUIDE BOOK - Andy Garrison
 6:00 THE DENNY REGRADE DEVELOPMENT PLAN The regrade, formerly Denny Hill, was one of the first attempts at urban renewal in Seattle. This was in 1890. The area subsequently was left to Seattle's real estate and mercantile establishment, and became the no-man's land one can see today between downtown and the Seattle Center. The present plan to "rehabilitate" the area consists of - once again - displacing the residents in favor of business interests. John Clarkson examines that plan.
 6:55 PROGRAM NOTES.
 7:00 TO BE ANNOUNCED
 7:30 LEFT PRESS REVIEW - Frank Krasnowsky

30

- 5:30 EARLIE MUSICKE - Randy McCarty
 10:00 EARTH MUSIC - Jim Paradis
 11:55 PROGRAM NOTES
 12:00 SPECTRUM - Carlos Hagen
 1:00 FOLK MUSIC AND BERNSTEIN - Fold Music of Geordies, with ethnomusicologist, Murray Bernstein.
 2:00 SECULAR MUSIC circa 1300 - The Early Music Quartet performs music from the medieval manuscript "Libre Vermell." Also dances and vocal music of the middle ages.
 3:00 SEATTLE FOLKLORE SOCIETY CONCERT - Growing up in Grayson County, Virginia, Kilby Snow began playing autoharp nearly sixty-four years ago. In his native hills, the autoharp has been a popular and versatile folk instrument. Kilby plays not only the traditional autoharp favorites but complex breakdowns and contemporary country and bluegrass as well as original compositions. His style is quite unique in that he plays an outstanding performer of oldtime music. You'll be hearing more from Mike on future programs. Produced by Darrell Mc Michael.
 5:30 THE LOWER INCOME AND THE LOWER END CONSUMER Poverty, as a life and lifestyle has many problems and hardships...one of the hardships most easily overlooked in the attempt to "help out" is consumer problems for the lower income consumer. But, people are learning to deal with it: members of the Central Area Motivation Project's Consumer Affair talk with C.D. residents that have had problems with merchants to car lots, and what is being done to correct them.
 6:00 FLAMENCO Y SUS ESTILLOS - Allen Yonge
 6:55 PROGRAM NOTES
 7:00 ART IS ALL OVER
 8:00 INDIANS IN THE NORTH WEST--WHAT RIGHTS UNDER THE LAW? - When white settlers wanted lands occupied by "Indians," they drew up legal codes and classifications for the occupants placing them under the White's jurisdiction. The contracts and treaties were ignored when inconvenient. What is the legal status of Native Americans today? KRAB talks with Don Bellinger, a co-founder of the North West Indian Legal Research Center, an all-Indian organization trying to answer that question and facilitate the process of self-determination.
 9:00 "...AND CAST THE SCATTERING BIRDS THE CRUMBS OF MORNING." - Dale Nelson, Northwest poet, reading from his works. Includes: "Week-end Forecast"; "The Airlines Pilot explains Pre-Flight Procedures"; "Point-No Point"; "Zucchini"; and others.

FOR KRAB

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL RADIO STATION

KRAB is a non-commercial often educational frequently entertaining listener supported radio station that exists only through the goodwill of its listeners that send in annual contributions, and a rowdy band of dedicated volunteers.

By contributing $25.00 per year you can join others in the Northwest from Olympia to Vancouver, B.C., who place a high value on quality programming, uninterrupted by commercials.

If you would like to be a krab sponsor, but can't afford 25 dollars a year, you can join at the special low rate of $15.00 (Students, retired or in the service).

ALL CONTRIBUTIONS ARE TAX-DEDUCTIBLE

For those of you with time on your hands, something to say, or if you're just interested in learning what this kind of radio is all about and what it takes to get it out, there's a place for you here: We need all the help we can get: Engineers, announcers, carpenters, painters, plumbers, electricians, artists, printers, or just all around handy people. Come on up to the Fire Station, for just a visit or to lend a hand. (Next month we start a big membership drive, even if you've only got an hour a week to spare please come and help)

The address for contributions or visits is:
